NEW AUTOPSY REPORT:

DIANA WAS MURDERED ON WAY TO HOSPITAL!

Diana, still alive, was taken from the crumpled wreck of this Mercedes-Benz

Princess was supposed to die in tunnel crash – but when she survived CHARLES' AGENTS KILLED HER WITH POISON INJECTION

AN EXPLOSIVE new autopsy conducted on Princess Diana after her body was exhumed last year reveals she SURVIVED the Paris car crash, but was later MURDERED with a lethal injection in the ambulance on the way to the hospital!

A highly placed British source who has seen parts of the top-secret report says the document contains revelations that blow the lid off what really happened on Aug. 31, 1997, when the limo carrying Prince Charles' ex-wife and her lover Dodi Fayed crashed in a Paris tunnel. Bombshell findings that threaten Britain's royal family include:

■ Charles ordered the assassination — and rogue MI5 spies carried out his evil orders.

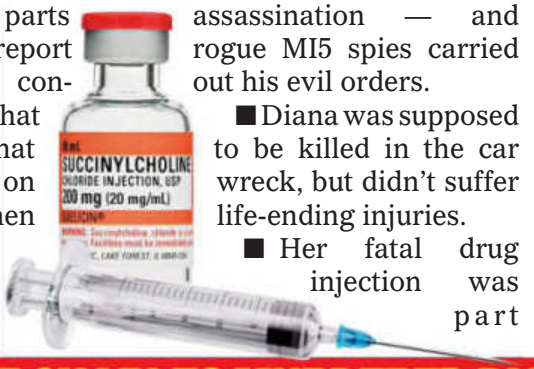

■ Diana was supposed to be killed in the car wreck, but didn't suffer life-ending injuries.

■ Her fatal drug injection was part of a backup plan in case the original murder plot failed.

■ The kill shot was delivered by a British agent posing as a French paramedic.

■ The injection contained a substance that stops the heart and is undetectable — unless coroners specifically test for the drug.

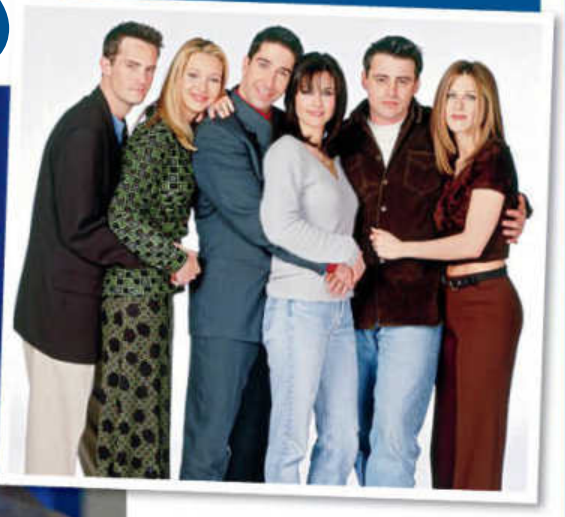

■ Once Diana's body arrived at the French hospital,

BLOATED MATTHEW WORRIES 'FRIENDS'

Why Perry didn't show for sitcom's cast reunion

TROUBLED Matthew Perry shot down a long-awaited reunion of the "Friends" cast - and now his worried old pals are considering an intervention, insiders say!

Tinseltown insiders say photos of Matt looking like a trainwreck — and a bizarre performance on a British TV talk show — have sparked concern the 46-year-old actor has fallen back into substance abuse!

"Something definitely seems to be wrong with Matthew," says a Hollywood source.

"He's packed on about 50 pounds since 'Friends' and walks around in public looking disheveled and unshaven.

"He's in London rehearsing for a stage play, but the new photos and his TV interview have pals worried he's spiraling out of control and his pill-and-booze demons have resurfaced."

Matthew Perry has long battled drink and drugs. His current shabby appearance has pals worried about his health

The actor has packed on 50 pounds since leaving the sitcom

GLOBE spies caught a sloppily-dressed Matthew walking in London waving a cigarette and carrying on an intense conversation — with himself!

His disturbing appearance and seemingly slurred speech on Graham Norton's chat show also left viewers shocked.

"Something strange with Matthew's face and the way he's talking," tweeted one viewer.

"I thought he'd been drinking," said another who watched the TV appearance.

During the interview Perry shockingly revealed there would be NO "Friends" reunion after all, leaving millions of fans heartbroken.

The get-together was actually a part of a Feb. 21 NBC special tribute to director James Burrows.

But while the five other "Friends" — Jennifer Aniston, Courteney Cox, Lisa Kudrow, Matt LeBlanc and David Schwimmer — were there in person, Perry taped a message from England instead.

"Matthew says he can't be there in person because of his play, but I believe he doesn't want any scrutiny or an intervention from these friends," says the source.

Perry, who played Chandler Bing, did rehab stints in 1997, 2001, 2004 and in 2011 after his sitcom, "Mr. Sunshine" was canceled. He recently sold his Malibu mansion, which he used as a sober-living facility.

With the second season of his new show, "The Odd Couple" beginning in April, the photos of Perry looking bloated and frazzled are worrying, says the source.

"If he needs help, his 'Friends' will be there for him," says the insider. "But first, he has to admit he needs them."

intelligence officers arranged a cover-up to make sure Di's death looked accidental.

"The autopsy findings and subsequent investigative report prove beyond a shadow of a doubt Charles was behind Diana's death," says the source.

"This material is devastating to Queen Elizabeth and the royals as a whole. It's possible Charles will be tried for conspiracy and murder. Incorruptible CSI experts and lawmen are tying up all the loose ends to build an airtight case against the Prince of Wales."

Ironically, Charles' children,

Investigators charge Prince Charles (left) was behind the horrfic car crash that killed Princess Diana and Dodi Fayed

PROOF CHARLES KI

Princes William and Harry, ordered the secret exhumation of their mom's body and the new autopsy after learning the Queen confessed her oldest son masterminded his ex-wife's death.

Late last year, it became public knowledge that Elizabeth blurted out: "Someone must have greased the brakes!" when she first heard the news about Di's crash.

In the months before her murder, the Princess told friends Charles was arranging for her to die in an auto wreck. At the same time, Her Majesty heard talk around the palace that "Charles wanted Di dead," but dismissed it as gossip.

Now a top CSI expert who has studied "Operation Paget," the code name for the official, 832-page British police crime investigation of the Diana tragedy, says, "William and Harry have good reason to suspect something was fishy about their mother's death probe. Proof of a DNA cover-up is clearly stated in the case file."

The expert believes many of the original tests performed on Di's fluids and tissues in the immediate aftermath of the Paris incident were faked — or samples were switched.

"Robert Thompson, the mortuary manager who assisted at the Princess' autopsy in London, noted that besides the smell of formaldehyde when Diana's stomach was opened, there was such a distinct scent of alcohol, he had to 'step back a pace,'" notes the expert. "Yet the official blood test indicates that no alcohol was found in her body.

"We simply can't trust any of the testing that was performed."

Charles ordered Diana's demise because he believed her romance with Muslim playboy Dodi was humiliating the Crown — especially because rumors were swirling in British high society that she was pregnant with his baby.

According to a high-placed crime investigator involved with the new autopsy, the probe reveals Charles directed rogue MI5 agents, who also believed Di posed a threat, to get rid of her and Dodi.

The highly skilled agents devised two murder plans — one as a backup in case the first failed — to make sure their master's orders were carried out, the investigator charges.

"One team of assassins was stationed in the tunnel and momentarily blinded driver Henri Paul with laser flash that caused him to suddenly swerve the Mercedes sedan, lose control and crash," says the investigator.

"A second team placed agents posing as French paramedics with ambulance crews that were likely to be called to the scene."

Following the 1:10 a.m. smash-up, Di was still alive and "received medical care at the scene from a number of people," including police and fire personnel, says page 516 of the Operation Paget report.

Henri Paul

An ambulance team doctor noted her blood pressure was so low she "suffered cardiac arrest," and he had to give her "emergency resuscitation" in the ambulance.

The Operation Paget report notes that "the Princess of Wales arrived at the Pitié-Salpêtrière hospital unconscious but still alive."

After "emergency medical treatment and … surgery … she was pronounced dead at 4 a.m." But the new autopsy exposes many of the claims in the Operation Paget analysis as total hogwash — and a deliberate cover-up.

An insider says the new autopsy found traces of deadly succinylcholine chloride in samples of Di's DNA taken from her bone marrow, muscle and organ tissue.

In small doses, the chemical is used to relax throat muscles so a breathing tube can be inserted in a patient and "would be part of what the ambulances carry," says the source.

"But if too much is used, the patient's heart rhythm would be compromised and death would follow.

"It would take two or three seconds for a killer to administer a lethal dosage and the target would be dead within a minute."

The chemical dissipates quickly in the bloodstream and wouldn't be detected unless specifically tested for, notes the source.

But traces would remain in the muscles and organs "so samples can be tested even after the body was buried and exhumed."

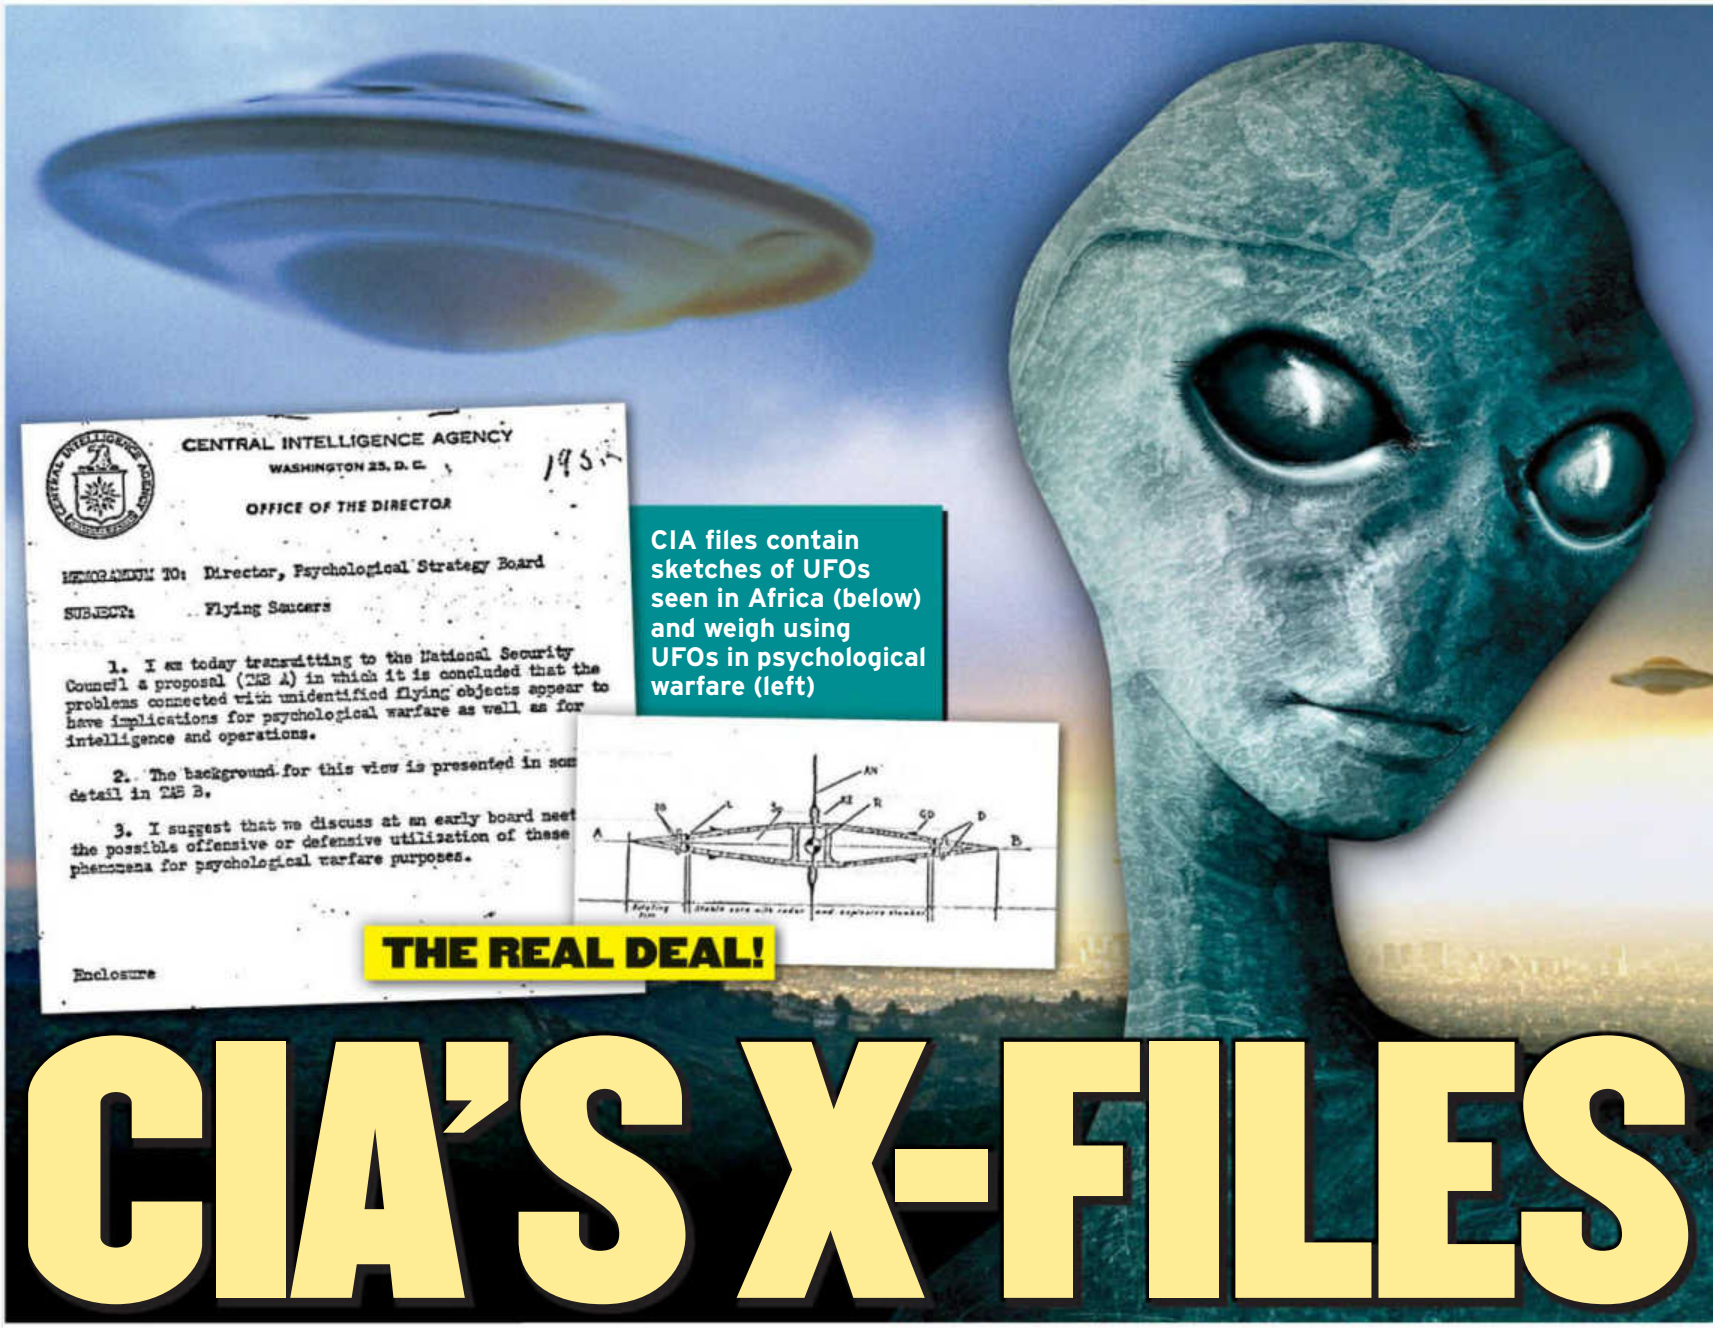

The Paget report noted that instead of being taken to a cold-storage morgue, Di's body remained in a hospital room without air conditioning and packed with dry ice.

The crime expert believes the conspirators wanted her body to decay to destroy evidence of the killer injection.

But the new autopsy has found traces of the drug, says the crime expert.

"Whoever administered the fatal dose would have likely falsified the records to show that she got the standard amount," says the source.

"But new chemical testing can bring down the house of cards."

CIA files contain sketches of UFOs seen in Africa (below) and weigh using UFOs in psychological warfare (left)

THE REAL DEAL!

CIA'S X-FILES

IN AN earth-shattering move, the CIA has released top secret files containing eye-popping evidence that extraterrestrial beings have landed on Earth — AND have interacted with humans!

America's top intelligence agency has been tracking the existence of UFOs and alien visitors since 1947 — and the reports show the clandestine organization sent agents all over the planet to investigate ET claims!

One close encounter occurred in a "Soviet Zone" of East Germany during 1952.

Agents in West Berlin were asked to investigate a sighting of a "huge frying pan by an eyewitness who approached the nearly 50 feet long vehicle and saw two men.

"They seemed to be dressed in some shiny metallic clothing," says the witness in the report.

"They were stooped over and were looking at something lying on the ground."

As the witness and his young daughter approached, the two mysterious visitors suddenly appeared spooked "because they immediately jumped on the conical tower and disappeared inside."

The object then began to rotate as it slowly rose off the ground, surrounded by a ring of flames!

Flying Saucers

Another UFO sighting in 1952 occurred over what is now the Democratic Republic of the Congo where two "fiery disks" were hovering over uranium mines.

The objects "glided in elegant curves and changed their position many times, so that from below they sometimes appeared as plates, ovals, and simply lines," according to the report.

The two disks then hovered in one spot before zooming off in a unique zigzag flight.

The report actually includes diagrams of the Flying Saucers "based on reports by pilots who pursued the disks!"

The stunning covert documents released on the Internet reveal at least seven more sightings — and provide further evidence of the U.S. government's secret obsession with aliens.

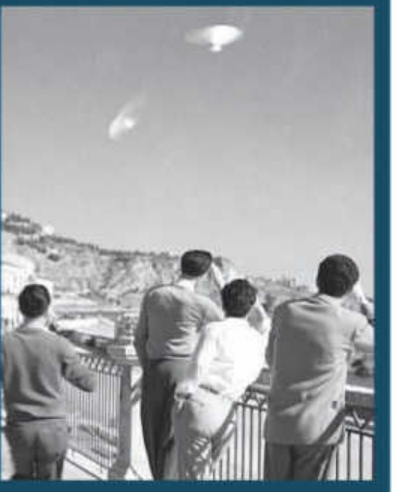

President Ronald Reagan claimed aliens ordered him into politics!

Presidents from Franklin Delano Roosevelt to Ronald Reagan were all briefed on E.Ts, according to the book "The Presidents and UFOs."

Both Jimmy Carter and Reagan actually claimed to have seen UFOs with their own eyes. In fact, Reagan once told pals that a UFO blocked his car on a road — and an alien approached him with an order: "Leave acting and go into politics!"

Says one intelligence insider: "While these reports don't actually confirm the sightings — they sure don't disprove them either! And taken together, they make one thing perfectly clear: We are not alone!"

WHAT TO DO IF YOU SPOT AN ALIEN!

THE CIA has published a list of helpful tips when investigating a UFO. Here are some of the more crucial ones:

ESTABLISH A GROUP – Credibility is key when reporting strange phenomena. The more witnesses the better when it comes to evaluating odd occurrences.

CONSULT WITH EXPERTS – Check with astrophysicists, FAA officials, pilots, even local weather stations to ensure that the object isn't some experiment or earthly vehicle flying around.

ELIMINATE FALSE POSITIVES – By ruling out common explanations, such as military aircraft and weather balloons, investigators can focus on the mysterious cases.

GATHER PHYSICAL EVIDENCE – Soil tests can show whether debris from an object has seeped into the ground. Also, charred grass or bushes once tested will reveal chemical residues.

SYDNEY SIMPSON'S 247-LB CRY FOR HELP!

OJ's girl needs therapy – NOT comfort food – to banish agony of mom's bloody murder – TOP DOCS

EVIL O.J. Simpson's tragic daughter Sydney is shockingly obese — and experts fear her efforts to find emotional comfort by eating will doom her to an early grave.

Once a slim, vibrant girl, Sydney's weight has exploded to an estimated 247 pounds. Her weight gain coincides with the recent release of the FX TV series "The People v. O.J. Simpson: American Crime Story," which details her father's trial for the murder of her mother, Nicole Brown Simpson.

After studying alarming photos of the 30-year-old taken outside her St. Petersburg, Fla., home just days ago, doctors tell GLOBE Sydney's been seeking comfort in food — and needs professional help before she eats herself to death.

"I'd say she's gained at least 70 to 80 pounds," says New York internist Dr. Stuart Fischer. "She is certainly obese, and obesity shortens life.

"With this tremendous weight gain, she has put herself at risk for 60 different illnesses including diabetes, heart disease and even breast cancer.

"She needs therapy, not just a salad. She needs psychological counseling and a good support system."

Sydney (circled) hangs with mom and dad before the murder

O.J. tries on bloody gloves at his trial

Nicole's butchered body is wheeled from the murder scene

New York psychotherapist Dr. Gilda Carle called the tormented woman's weight gain "frightening" and "tragic."

"I am very concerned about both her physical and emotional health," says Carle. "I don't know if she's seeing a therapist, but she absolutely needs to."

Fischer linked Sydney's weight issues to the TV series, starring Cuba Gooding as O.J. The show forces Sydney to relieve the horrified slashing death of her mom.

"Of course, she's under stress — who wouldn't be under these circumstances?" says Fischer, author of the "Park Avenue Diet."

"People are seeing her father tried all over again for the murder of her mother. It has to bring out disturbing emotions that influence her eating patterns."

On June 12, 1994, 35-year-old Nicole and her waiter friend Ron Goldman, 25, were found butchered in the back of her

Brentwood, Calif., condo. Sydney, then 8, and her 5-year-old brother Justin were asleep inside the condo when their mother died.

In what was dubbed The Trial of the Century, O.J. beat the murder rap in 1995 — but was later found guilty of their wrongful deaths in a civil trial.

But Sydney's 68-year-old disgraced football player daddy didn't escape justice all together. He's currently serving a 33-year sentence in a Nevada prison for the 2007 kidnapping and robbery of a sports memorabilia dealer in Las Vegas. She rarely mentions her father's crimes, insiders say.

Nicole's sister Tanya reveals the Brown family never discusses the gruesome double-murders with Sydney. But she HAS talked with pals.

Sydney's former boyfriend Stuart Alexander Lee, who dated her for five years starting in 2007, says Simpson's daughter "speculates it was a drug deal gone bad. Sydney doesn't believe O.J. did it, but she doesn't know what to believe."

But after the murders and the bungled trial that turned O.J. into the Most Hated Man in America, young Sydney went through a "living hell" and was bullied at school, says friend Tom Scotto.

"Sydney was a very tough, angry, angry girl. She was just angry at the world."

Sydney's pain is all too apparent in her shocking weight gain, experts say.

"She's letting everybody know she's unhappy," says Dr. Carle. "When your father is vilified, it has to be really sad and difficult.

"It's obvious she has issues."

Holy cow! Sydney was skinny in 2004 (left). Now she has reached a dangerous 247 pounds

AMY SCHUMER's new boyfriend, BEN HANISCH, is star-struck! Insiders say the 29-year-old furniture creator has gone overboard posting snapshots from red carpets — and muscled his way on to his girlfriend's Comedy Central series, "Inside Amy Schumer." Interestingly, this comes only a few months after Amy said, "The last guy I dated was an Ebola doctor. I liked dating a civilian, but he was interested in not staying a civilian — that was a turn-off for me." Let's hope it's not happening again!

SKYJACKER D.B. TELLS ALL!

AMERICA'S most baffling mystery — the whereabouts of daredevil jet hijacker D.B. Cooper — has been solved after 44 long years!

After receiving a credible tip, GLOBE spent months hunting Cooper, who parachuted midflight from a Northwest Airlines plane with nearly $200,000 in ransom money, and found him living like a king in remote Nepal!

Now, in a blockbuster world-exclusive, the 85-year-old legend is telling the incredible story of his life after he leaped into American criminal history on Nov. 24, 1971. After weeks of negotiation, the world's most wanted fugitive agreed to talk — with the conditions that his exact location be kept secret and he's identified only by the name "Alex."

"I did the impossible and lived," says Alex, who reveals his real name isn't Cooper, either. "Many supposed experts figured I died during a harebrained heist — but I've gotten the last laugh! I'm a rich free man!"

The white-haired, deeply tanned hustler lives in a mountain lodge with his German wife, Ulrike, 60, and a houseful of servants, including a Sherpa guide who doubles as a bodyguard.

"While the authorities have spent years tearing their hair out looking for me, I've been living like a king!" Alex roars in a hoarse, two-pack-a-day voice. "I've made fools of them all!"

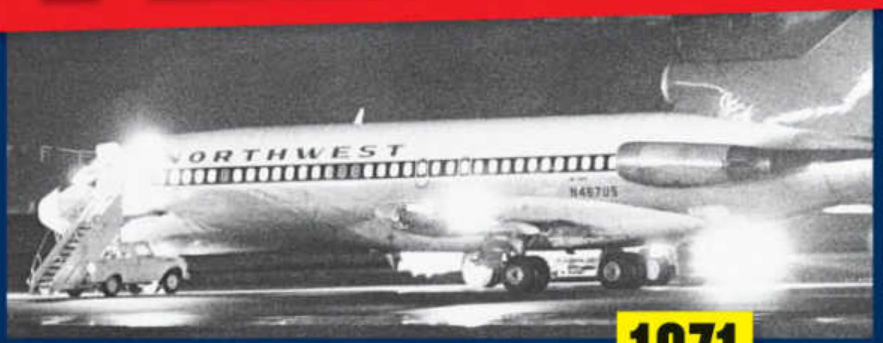

Alex hijacked Northwest Flight 305 in Portland, Ore., using the name Dan Cooper — a police error later changed the name to D.B. Cooper — by showing a stewardess his briefcase containing a bomb.

When the jetliner landed in Seattle, Alex demanded $200,000 in cash — worth more than $1 million today — and four parachutes. Then he orded the passengers off the plane and told the crew to stay in the cockpit and head south at 200 miles an hour.

When the plane touched down in Reno, Nev., the crew found the rear stairs had been lowered — and all that remained of "D.B. Cooper" was the black tie he'd left on his seat!

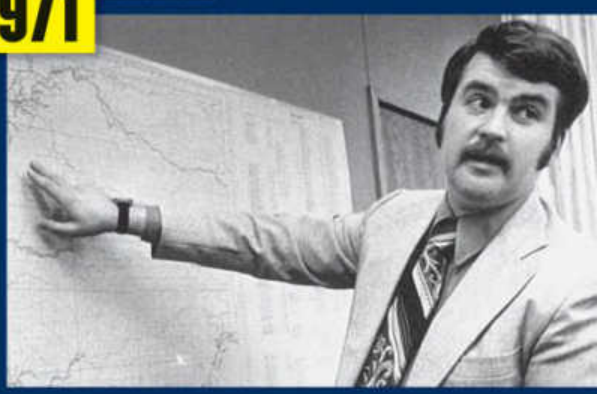

"I dumped two bundles of money into the woods at three minute intervals as we flew south," Alex says. "I wanted to get the FBI off my trail. I guess I did, since they never found me!"

In fact, the brazen skyjacker's trail was stone cold until

FUGITIVE FOUND LIVING LIKE KING IN REMOTE NEPAL

Cooper, now known as "Alex," leaves his Himalayan lair for Nepal's capital Katmandu – where he met his second wife. Here, he meets a drug smuggler on a crowded street to finish a deal 1980 when $5,800 in $20 bills was discovered on a riverbank north of Portland. The serial numbers on the bundled bills matched some of those paid to Cooper.

"That was one bundle. There was a second. I guess who ever found it, did what I did — took the money and ran," he laughs.

After dropping the cash, Alex, who'd practiced parachuting in Vegas, jumped from the jet into the pitch black sky.

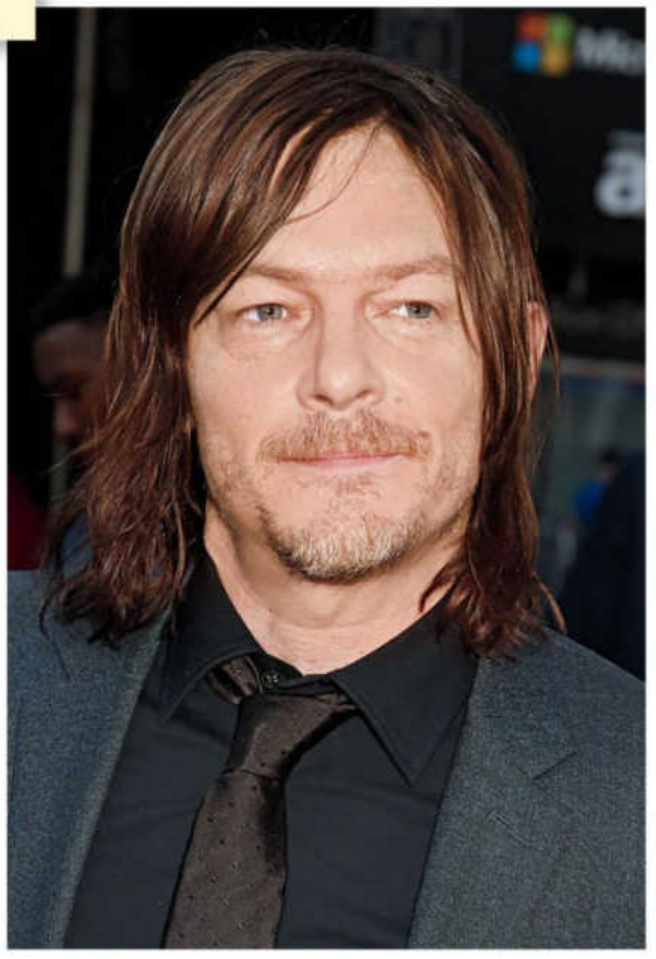

"I screamed my head off on the way down," he recalls. "I couldn't believe I'd pulled it off!"

Landing in southern Oregon as planned, Alex traveled by night, hauling his 20 pounds of cash to a cabin he'd rented

Here are 10 things you don't know about the offbeat actor who's gotten a VERY bizarre gift from an admirer.

The "Real Housewives of New Jersey" star, who served time on fraud charges, called her prison cell the "Boom Boom Room" and often heard her cellmates' sensual sounds.

DIE, DADDY, DIE!

Bulmer and Arnold were both murderous misfits

A TWISTED teenage misfit who gloated after her boyfriend butchered her father will have the next 30 years to think about her horrific crime as she rots in a maximum-security prison!

Manipulative Morgan Lane Arnold, now 16, was only 14 when she planned the bloody murder of her dad, Dennis Lane, 58, a prominent Maryland businessman.

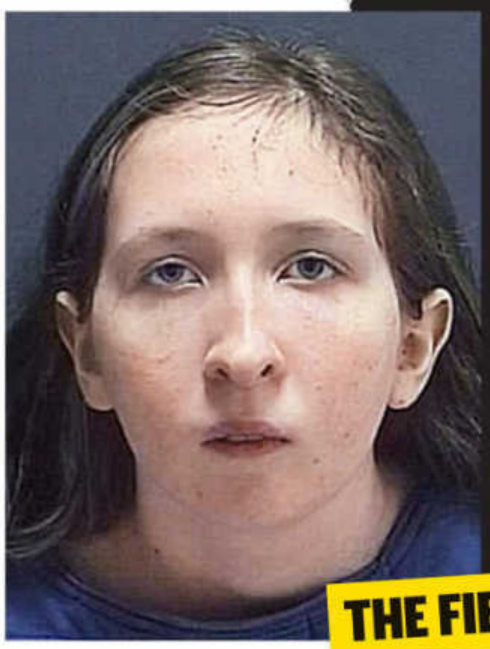

The devious she-devil led 19-year-old beau Jason Lee Bulmer by the nose and convinced him to do the dirty deed. The cunning cutie spent at least two months sweet-talking Bulmer, plotting the crime — and discussing their planned escape to California after the murder. The little monster set it all up very carefully.

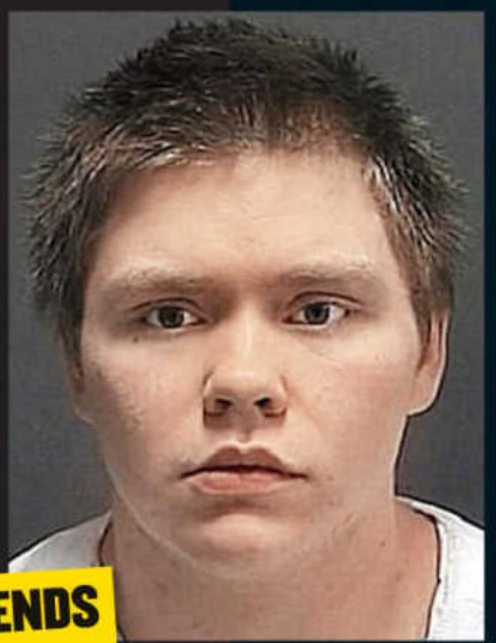

She deliberately left a basement door to her home unlocked — allowing Bulmer easy access. He stabbed her father to death with a kitchen knife on May 10, 2013 — and also attacked Dennis' girlfriend, Denise Geiger.

Despite all their planning, the bloodthirsty teens got caught when Geiger dialed 911.

Arnold showed no remorse, telling cops: "I'm glad he's dead. My fantasy came true. He disappeared."

But her defense attorney considered painting the callous teen as a nut, detailing her background of mental illness — which included anxiety, depression, ADD and Asperger's syndrome.

Ultimately, though, Arnold's legal eagle decided not to mount an insanity defense.

And one of her father's sisters testified her niece was anything but crazy.

"Morgan is smart — smart and cunning," Arnold's aunt Kelly Lane testified. "She's not happy unless she is the center of attention and getting her way."

Arnold's mother, Cyndi, didn't agree, insisting her daughter "would carry a mosquito outside rather than kill it."

But Arnold's own diaries and evil words doomed her.

"Dear Diary," Arnold wrote on April 27, 2013. "Dad was so rude to my boyfriend and me today. My boyfriend wants to kill my dad. I think I would like that."

The entry noted that she wanted to stab her father with a kitchen knife.

"Then I would leave him there to bleed out and die slowly and painfully," she wrote, signing the diary entry, "Sincerely, Morgan Arnold."

Begged for mercy

At an earlier trial, Bulmer pled guilty to murdering Dennis. He told the court Arnold was 'sick of her father" and received a 30-year sentence.

In the end, Arnold — facing a life sentence if convicted — copped a guilty plea, too. Her lawyer begged for mercy.

"A 16-year-old who is profoundly mentally ill should not be warehoused for the rest of her life," says her attorney Joe Murtha.

But Circuit Judge William Tucker didn't buy the sob story and threw the book at the fiend.

"This was a well-thought-out plan," he said. "It's clear that she was the main culprit."

1 Growth Hormone: They Can't Stop Talking About This "Fountain of Youth"

They can't stop talking about human growth hormone (hGH). It's been featured on The Doctors, The Today Show, Good Morning America, Fox News, and CNN. Allure magazine, in its "Anti-aging Special" issue, highlighted growth hormone as its year-end callout. Shape magazine began a recent growth hormone article with the provocative lead-in: "When you see a 50-year-old actress who can pass for 35, you can bet that good genes aren't the only things responsible for her youthful glow." But when the United States Patent Office began issuing U.S. Patents‡ to protect an oral compound capable of boosting the body's own production of growth hormone to more youthful levels, the hGH revolution finally went mainstream.

The compound is being sold under the trade name SeroVital®-hgh, and it's quickly gaining an almost "cult-like" following because, let's face it… something that may have the power to reduce wrinkles, tighten saggy skin, decrease body fat, increase lean muscle mass, boost energy, rev up sex drive, and make you look and feel decades — not years, but DECADES — younger is, at the very least, irresistible... especially when it's protected by not one but eleven U.S. Patents.‡ But is there a catch? Find out all the details at SeroVital.com. Can't wait to try it yourself? It's currently available at all Ulta stores, Kohl's, select GNC locations, and direct from the manufacturer at 1-800-996-3525 or SeroVital.com. Use promo code HGH370 and get free shipping.†

When everything else has failed!

They're flying off the shelf... but it's not for everyone.

BiphedAdrene® is quickly making a name for itself in the "Super Pill" category because of its supercharged dual approach to weight loss: it's composed of a unique Complex Phenylethylamine Provisional (for powerful appetite control, mood elevation, and sustained energy) combined with an Aggressive Thermogenic Compound (for fat burning and stamina). This two-pronged attack on fat is apparently what makes the compound so effective... and so popular. And it doesn't just help provide very substantial weight loss... it also adds a mood and energy boost. BiphedAdrene is available at GNC and smarter retailers nationwide, direct from the manufacturer at Biphed.com or by calling 1-800-519-2459. Use promo code BIPHED134 and get free shipping! However, we emphasize that this high-energy product is not for everyone because it is extremely potent and contains powerful xanthine (stimulant) compounds. Nevertheless, if "ordinary" diet pills aren't doing the job, BiphedAdrene could most certainly be your best bet!

The European Wrinkle Pill

Check this out!

Have you ever noticed how topical cosmetic skin creams always talk about improving the "appearance" of the skin or "visibly" reducing wrinkles? They all contain wussy "appearance" qualifiers, because none of them will claim they change the skin's structure (not even Estée Lauder or La Mer with its $300 wrinkle cream, just to mention two). That's why a revolutionary new "anti-wrinkle" compound is causing such a stir. This oral compound has the power to make your skin younger. Not younger looking... actually younger. We're talking about rebuilding your skin, making it thicker and more dense (think less likely to wrinkle and sag), even decreasing wrinkles... not merely the "look" of wrinkles, but literally decreasing their depth, thereby actually smoothing the skin as it improves the underlying cellular matrix. There's not a single cosmetic moisturizer, serum, or cream out there that will make those kinds of claims. And because it works systemically (throughout the entire body), it's able to improve the skin everywhere, from the face, neck, and décolleté to crepey arms, loose abdominal skin... even buttock sag and elbow wrinkles. It's sort of like a facelift for your whole body: it works from the end of your nose to the tips of your toes. This unique, total body, anti-wrinkle complex is called UniLastin™ and it's available exclusively at UniLastin.com or by calling 1-800-591-0595 (promo code AGEPILL37 gives you free shipping†). About $79.

Can't Sleep?

It might be Stress Related Sleep Disorder™

On any given evening, more than 100 million Americans have a hard time getting a good night's sleep. And almost half of those people can't fall asleep or stay asleep because of stress and something we call Stress Related Sleep Disorder (SRSD).

What's worse, when you don't get enough sleep you become more stressed, and a vicious cycle begins. Ultimately, the results can be the classic signs of getting older: fatigue, lack of focus, irritability, poor memory, and moodiness.

Unfortunately, many of us are taking the wrong kind of sleeping pill... one that does little or nothing to combat SRSD and can leave you feeling "hungover" in the morning. But all that's changing thanks to Relacore Extra "Deep Sleep". It's the first and only sleep aid specifically developed to break the sleep-stress cycle and address SRSD... and it's helping Americans fall asleep quickly and wake up rested and ready to take on your day. If you're ready to finally get some sleep, contact Carter-Reed at 1-800-403-1654 or online at www.RelacoreSleep.com. Use promo code SLEEP34 and get free shipping.†

'WONDER WOMAN' SNUBS LIVID LYNDA CARTER!

TV'S Wonder Woman Lynda Carter is "fuming" after movie studio bigwigs froze her out of the upcoming blockbuster featuring the comic book heroine.

A source close to the 64-year-old legend told GLOBE Lynda, famed for playing Diana Prince and her Amazon warrior alter ego in the TV series that ran from 1975 to 1979, is "bummed out" over the epic snub.

"She was seriously thinking she might sit down with the producers and give her input on the character," says the source.

Due out in June 2017, the new flick stars Israeli beauty Gal Gadot as Wonder Woman and Chris Pine as her love interest.

But producers didn't want sultry Lynda, once voted "The Most Beautiful Woman in the World," involved!

Even the role of the superheroine's mom, Hypolita, went to 50-year-old Connie Nielsen.

Although Lynda is still beautiful, movie execs didn't even ask her to play the super-heroine's mother Hypolita!

TV icon doesn't even get bit part in new flick

Sultry actress Gal Gadot has been cast as the new Wonder Woman, leaving lovely Lynda feeling less than super!

One insider believes the movie makers think the tongue-in-cheek style of old-time superhero TV shows, including "Batman," and "Wonder Woman" is "embarrassing."

"'Wonder Woman' is going to be a serious movie," huffs the studio insider.

Also, the TV show ran 40 years ago and the movie's younger "target audience doesn't even remember it."

However, Lynda could also be blacklisted because she griped about being cheated out of royalties from the show, the source says.

During an appearance on the late Joan River's talk show, the statuesque beauty complained: "They use you!! I make nothing. I don't even make anything from the reruns. Don't ever settle for net profits. It's called creative accounting."

Following "Wonder Woman," Lynda starred in a few TV series that fizzled. The twice-married beauty did theater work and released some jazz albums.

In 2008, she confessed to battling alcoholism and also noted she'd been sober for 10 years.

Her most recent work was as a voice in the 2015 video game Fallout 4.

But the source says she hoped to revive her image with the new movie.

"She's sick of being remembered mostly for Wonder Woman being stupid and for nude pictures of her on the Internet from an old drive-in movie," the insider said. "She wants to create new, modern memories."

NO SEX FOR GINA!

Sultry Lollobrigida, 88, insists she didn't bed swindler boy toy

ITALIAN screen legend Gina Lollobrigida claims her much younger Spanish boyfriend tricked her into marrying him in order to claim her $50 million fortune!

What's more bizarre is she says they never had sex!

"Even when we went traveling, we slept in separate rooms and we never had intimate relations," Gina says.

In the strange case, the film siren, 88, says Javier Rigau y Rafols duped her into signing documents that made the pair legally husband and wife.

Javier, who is 34 years younger than the actress, has been charged with fraud and forgery.

The raven-haired beauty was already a superstar in her homeland before making her Hollywood debut in 1953's "Beat the Devil" as Humphrey Bogart's wife.

Gina supposedly met the handsome, baby-faced bizman at a party in Monaco in 1984. They announced plans to marry in 2006, but she had a change of heart before the ceremony.

She claims they split in 2007, but she found out six years later — unbeknownst to her — that she was married after all!

As GLOBE has previously reported, Javier's alleged scheme involved a female proxy standing in for Gina at a 2010 ceremony!

Gina also claims they spent little time together.

"I never once went to his house in Barcelona. He came here (to Rome) a few times to have dinner."

Javier denies the accusations, stating she agreed to the hush-hush marriage to avoid publicity.

Bombshell Gina says she NEVER did the deed with Javier – but he says the star wanted to keep their connection quiet

GROWING PAINS BOY: I BOOZED AT AGE 4!

FORMER "Growing Pains" star Jeremy Miller has revealed a shocking secret about his battle with the bottle – he began drinking when he was just FOUR!

Jeremy – best known as adorable Ben Seaver on the hit show – says he ran wild at his grandparents' parties.

"I began drinking at 4 years old," explains Miller. "I would run around ... and finish off all the empty beers."

Jerry, 39, is now in recovery, but says he was regularly smashed from age 12 onward – until he was scared sober.

"Rock bottom for me was waking up after having been completely blacked out, not having a clue what I did, with my fiancée sitting on the end of the bed, yet again, pissed and me not knowing what she would say," says Miller.

"She could have told me I got in the car and killed four people last night. I would have had no clue. That was my rock bottom."

Marijuana is less toxic than alcohol. It has positive medicinal uses, like fighting glaucoma and nausea. It also improves the appetites of patients suffering from severe diseases.

On the other hand, pot can be addictive and is not safe for driving, since it alters perception. It also impairs short-term memory — and can give you the muchies!

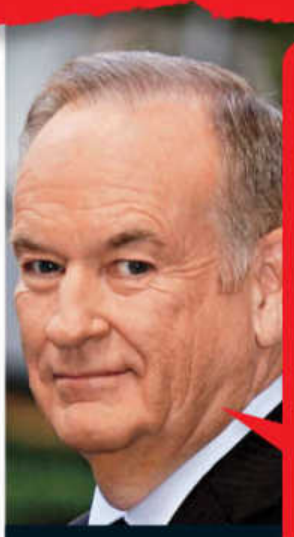

What do you think? Are voters nuts for welcoming weed onto Main Street? Or are the times a-changing?

Should America LEGALIZE MARIJUANA?

DON'T BE A DOPE

STARS WHO JUST SAY NO!

- It's addictive
- Ruins short-term memory
- Impairs driving
- Possible gateway drug

Bill O'Reilly TV Host

"The legalization of marijuana, still full of unintended consequences, sends a signal to children that drug use is an acceptable part of life – that's big."

Olivia Culpo 2013 Miss Universe

"I think that for medical purposes it is OK. I don't think it's good for recreational purposes. There are just too many bad habits that go with the drug."

Stephen Baldwin Actor

"America doesn't want its pot ... American potheads do!"

"I'm all for freedom, but when liberty turns into licentiousness, it's time to reconsider why we're doing what we're doing. Just because we can doesn't mean we should."

Chuck Norris Actor

NEW DISCOVERY: CATARACT SURGERY CURES INSOMNIA!

THERE'S new hope for the millions of insomniacs who toss and turn all night — eye surgery!

A recent study in Japan has found that getting rid of cataracts, which prevent light from reaching the area of your brain that sets your body clock, can improve sleep dramatically.

The study was done at Nara Medical University on more than a thousand pensioners, and the 174 patients who had undergone cataract surgery not only slept better, but also for longer.

"There is mounting evidence that cataract surgery really can have an effect on people's sleep problems," says English ophthalmic surgeon James Ball. "I've seen it in my own patients."

Cataracts build up over time as a cloudiness on the lens of the eye, hampering blue light from reaching the brain and also blurring vision.

Cataract surgery is usually a 45-minute procedure, involving a small incision to remove and replace the cloudy lens.

Once cataracts are removed, the brain is better able to set your body's clock, meaning a restful night's sleep — and a resulting reduction in the risk of obesity, heart disease and diabetes caused by insomnia.

ZIKA VIRUS ALERT!
WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

THE mosquito-spread Zika virus, which poses the greatest danger to unborn babies, has suddenly arrived in the U.S.

Here are facts about the disease, according to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control:

■ It's contracted via bites of the Aedes aegypti mosquito.

■ The virus first appeared in Africa and parts of Asia in the 1950s. In 2014, it spread to islands in the Pacific and then to South and Central America.

■ Mild symptoms include fever, rash, joint pain and red eyes lasting a few days.

■ The biggest risk is to pregnant women. Zika has been linked to nearly 4,000 babies born in Brazil with microcephaly – smaller than average head size and brain damage.

■ A travel warning has been issued for pregnant women to avoid Zika virus-laden areas.

DON'T BE RASH!

■ Zika may be related to an increase in cases of the rare Guillain-Barré syndrome – a sometimes paralyzing and fatal nerve disorder.

■ At least one study suggests it MAY also be transmitted by sexual intercourse.

■ Though travelers are bringing Zika with them, the CDC believes that we are unlikely to see a lot of cases in the U.S. or Canada.

The Aedes aegypti mosquito is also a carrier of dengue fever!

Grizzly flick is ridiculous fake

The bear who mauled Leonardo DiCaprio in "The Revenant" was a costumed stunt man

Stunt man Glenn Ennis wore this bear suit in rehearsals for "The Revenant"

GUY IN BEAR SUIT RAPED DICAPRIO!

MOVIEGOERS have been leaping from their seats when a very real-looking bear attacks Leonardo DiCaprio in "The Revenant," but it turns out the terrifying grizzly is nothing but a guy in a costume!

The stunning, two-minute scene, which takes place at the beginning of the Oscar-nominated flick, shows Leo's character, frontiersman Hugh Glass, being mauled in a vicious, no-holds-barred fight that some viewers claim depicted a rape, with Hugh being sexually assaulted by the beast, then left for dead.

Spouting that the savage scene "is, cinematically, very groundbreaking," Leo says the raw, violent, primal bear attack lets audiences "feel the intimacy of both man and beast."

And it WAS very intimate, says Glenn Ennis, the stunt man who played the enraged animal.

And Glenn had a reason to be mad! He says he spent hours with his face "in Leo's butt" while filming the kinky ambush scene.

However, "there was no bear ever on the set," laughs Glenn, 51.

"The closest a bear ever got was at the Calgary Zoo," which was miles away from where the scene was shot.

The Hollywood fakery was completed with special effects computer imagery.

"In rehearsals, I would wear a blue suit with a bear head," explains Glenn. "Even though it was a big Smurf bear, it still had to be as authentic as possible."

Maybe Glenn deserves the Academy Award!

PALTROW'S BIZARRE BROTHERLY LOVE AFFAIR

FORGET "Flowers in the Attic" – Gwyneth Paltrow has kids with her brother!

He's like my brother."

Gwynnie, 43, praises her "great ex-husband" and says she even has sleepovers at his Malibu house with their kids, Moses, 9, and Apple, 11.

"We're not living together, but he's more than welcome to be with us whenever he wants," she says.

No word on if Gwyneth's boyfriend, Brad Falchuk, brings a sleeping bag – or whether Moses and Apple call their mom's new sibling "Uncle Chris" or "Dad."

TORI TRASHES COLD FISH MOM!

Blames her troubles on Candy

POOR little rich girl Tori Spelling has already talked about her cheating hubby Dean McDermott, but now she's battling more devastating relationship problems — with her mother!

The former "Beverly Hills 90210" star recently ripped into her mega-rich mom Candy for being cold as ice — and rarely hugging or touching her as a young girl!

Tori says as a child she asked her famous producer father Aaron Spelling why her mother was so chilly.

"He would tell me, 'She had a really bad relationship with her mom. Her mom was like that with her.'"

That led Tori — mom to girls Stella, 7, and Hattie, 4 — to more emotional torture.

"When I found out I was pregnant with a daughter, I thought, 'F. I am screwed,'" she reveals. "I cried when I found out I was carrying a daughter. I didn't know what to do. I thought, I'm going to repeat the past."

Keeps in 'touch'

But Tori says she's figured out how to break the cycle of moms from hell — she's relying on "touch" with her daughters.

"I just wanted to hug her and hold her and tell her how beautiful she was and make eye contact. Because that wasn't done with me a lot, it was foreign."

Candy and Aaron Spelling with dissatisfied daughter Tori in 1992. Now Tori says her sweetly named mom rarely touched her as a child

The sour grapes about Candy comes after news broke that Tori, 42, was sued by American Express for a staggering $38,000 — and that Candy, 70, says she isn't going to foot the bill

"I'm paying all her bills now," says Candy. "I'm not paying extras like that. I'm not paying any back payments — just the house and the kids' school and the food. That's all."

Candy — who inherited $600 million of her husband's estate, while Tori got $800,000 — says Tori's outrageous bills aren't in the budget.

"She would close a store and drop $50,000 to $60,000. I never did anything like that. She just went crazy," blasts Candy.

But Tori is blaming her mom for her fiscal nightmare.

"It's no mystery why I have money problems. I grew up rich beyond anyone's wildest dreams. I never knew anything else."

D.B. COOPER: MY GREAT ESCAPE!

previously. There, he says, he spent two months transforming into a hairy hippie. "I looked like a white Jimi Hendrix. But I wasn't as cool. I was paranoid about the FBI!"

After hitchhiking to San Francisco, the skyjacker bought a passport from a Haight-Ashbry street rat named Alex.

Armed with the bogus papers and about $190,000 in cash, Alex went to a bar near the docks and bribed a merchant ship captain with $800 to let him stow away.

"I was worried he'd sell me out, but once we were at sea, I felt good about my chances. But I worried about the crew," he says. "So I kept a low profile and helped out in the kitchen.

"I became friends with a sailor whose name was Alex, too. And I bought his merchant marine card, and then carefully doctored my photo onto it!"

Armed with that card, Alex waltzed off the ship in Calcutta, India.

Although he was shocked at the beggars and poverty of India, "I knew my 'airline bonus' would go a long way," he says.

He quickly headed north to Nepal, which has no extradition treaty with the U.S. and welcomes thousands of Western visitors each year.

In Nepal, Alex blended in well with the tourists who visit the country searching for spiritual awakenings, Himalayan trekking — and drugs like hashish and opium.

"The first thing I did was stash my cash in a few banks in Katmandu. Then I smoked my brains out on Nepali temple ball!" he says, referring to a local type of hashish.

Eventually Alex became just as interested in selling drugs as smoking them and journeyed into the mountains, where he befriended his Sherpa guide, who helped him make important connections.

"With his help, I could bankroll hash deliveries and then sell the 'commodity' to European smugglers for a big profits," says Alex.

He hooked up with a local woman and eventually started a family. He now has "several" grandchildren, who he adores.

Decomposed ransom loot was discovered in 1980 (left). The skyjacker now sells hashish (circled) with the help of his Sherpa bodyguard (below)

After his wife died, he married mountain-loving Ulrike, who he met 10 years ago in a Katmandu cafe.

His life is quite comfortable — and his secret identity is secure.

"No one asked any questions," he says. "I reinvented myself, and it's such a poor country that the $190,000 I arrived with and my other business ventures mean I live like royalty by local standards! And I've stayed off the radar of law enforcement."

Although many others have claimed to be Cooper, Alex insists HE'S the real deal, and still enjoys the tale.

"I was tired of my life, tired of who I was," Alex says when asked why he pulled off the dramatic hijacking. "I have no regrets. I'd do it again tomorrow!"

TODAY

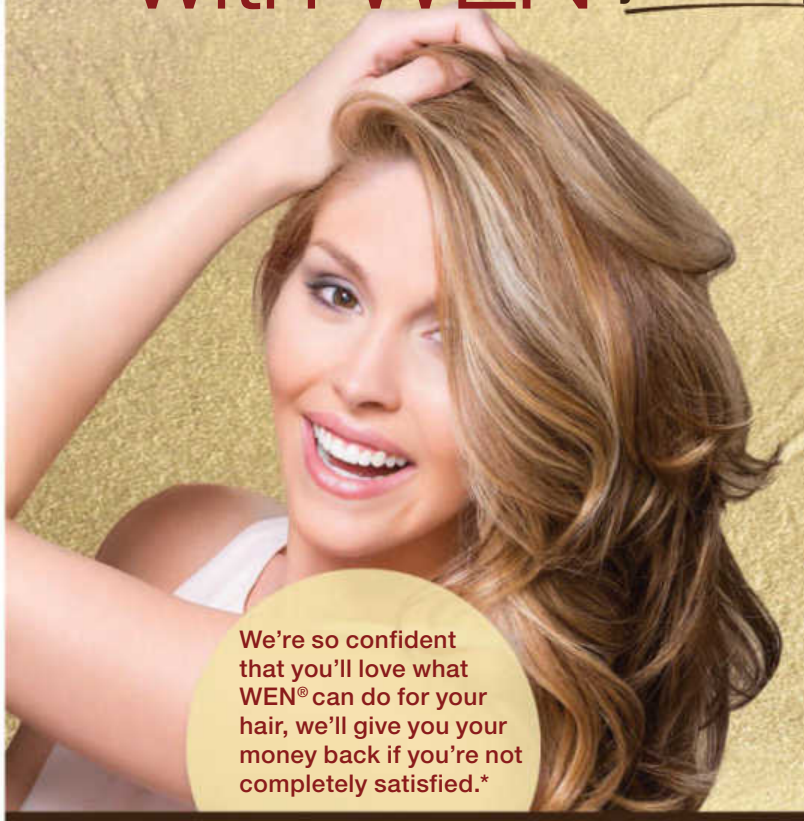

Alex, a.k.a. "D.B. Cooper," has made a life for himself in Nepal, where he lives comfortably with his family, including "several" grandchildren

STRAIGHT TALK!

BY JEFF RODACK

GLOBE columnist Jeff Rodack tells it like it is about celebrities – how they get under his skin with their stupid antics and the nonsense they try to put over on the public. Here is his unique take on Hollywood newsmakers and fakers.

GLOBE'S NO-NONSENSE OPINION PAGE

MORONIC SUSAN SARANDON SAGS TO A NEW LOW

I SWEAR I'm not a prude.

But crazy Susan Sarandon picked the wrong time to give everybody an eyeful of her cleavage. The 69-year-old actress wore a white, VERY low-cut blazer, exposing a black lacy bra and a lot more when she showed up for the recent Screen Actors Guild Awards.

Now I've attended many red carpet events in Hollywood over the years. And believe me, it's not the first time I've laid eyes on a set of boobs. After all, Kim and Kanye occasionally show up for some of these things.

But what made this so inappropriate, outrageous and just plain stupid is that Sarandon was there to introduce the segment paying tribute to those who died recently, including Omar Sharif, David Bowie, Alan Rickman, Anne Meara and Wayne Rogers.

It was meant to be a solemn and loving memorial – not a tribute to Sarandon's cleavage.

But the only thing people are talking about today is Screwy Sarandon and her lack of good taste.

Piers Morgan had this to say on Twitter: "Very tacky, Ms. Sarandon."

That's being just a little too polite, if you ask me.

It was a dumbass move by another dumbass Hollywood celebrity who doesn't give a damn about anybody but herself.

Hey, Susan, like everybody else, I also got a good glimpse. And the only thing I can say is: How appropriate you chose to expose most of your chest at something called the SAG Awards.

AND ONE MORE THING ... I loved Abe Vigoda. He was a longtime personal friend. We used to get together often for lunch in Beverly Hills and just talk all day.

He was a proud man. He was proud of his role as Tessio in "The Godfather." He was proud to be part of "Barney Miller" and was proud of his character Fish.

He was too nice a guy to be in Hollywood.

Which makes it all that much more bewildering that the Screen Actors Guild didn't bother including him in their tribute to dead stars. I guess the fools were just too busy looking at Susan Sarandon's chest.

Pathetic!

Well, that's all for this week, friends. Let me know what you think!

WWE legend is BATTLING KILLER CANCER

Bret vows to get the upper hand against prostate cancer

'HITMAN' HART ON THE ROPES!

WRESTLING legend Bret "The Hit-man" Hart has faced plenty of tough battles, including the death of his brother, but now he's fighting his toughest challenger — prostate cancer!

The 58-year-old athlete, known for his memorable bouts with the likes of "Macho Man" Randy Savage and Ric Flair, said on Feb. 1 he's undergoing surgery and vows to defeat "this nemesis once and for all."

The father of four retired in 2000, a year after wrestler brother Owen "The Blue Blazer" Hart shockingly plummeted 78 feet to his death in a harness accident in Kansas City, Mo. He was only 34.

The death of Owen (below) was a huge blow to Bret

A World Wrestling Entertainment Hall of Famer, Bret won five heavyweight championships, but one loss — the death of Owen — hit hard.

The gargantuan grappler thanks his wife, Steph, his kids and grandkids for staying by his side as he fights the disease.

"I refuse to lose, I will never give in or give up, and I will win this battle or die trying."

Bret, who suffered a stroke in 2002, also wants to be a leader by setting an example for all men that prostate cancer can be defeated.

"I stand unafraid and face the tough road ahead of me, I will march toward this destiny with his spirit chanting in my ear. I make a solemn vow to all of those that once believed in me, the dead and the living, that I will wage my fearsome fight against cancer with one shield and one sword."

WHY KFC PLUCKED COLONEL SANDERS

KENTUCKY Fried Chicken's most recent Colonel Sanders is off to the deep fryer after Norm Macdonald's take on the beloved icon ruffled viewer feathers!

The "Saturday Night Live" comedian, who took over the role from fellow "SNL" vet Darrell Hammond for an ad campaign that began in August, was such a turkey that 20 percent of KFC customers gave him a thumbs-down.

So KFC whipped up a publicity campaign to announce a new Colonel in a high-profile Super Bowl commercial, and bid farewell to Norm.

The jury is still out on whether Colonel Sanders No. 3 will be finger-lickin' good or completely overcooked.

The real Colonel died in 1980 and hadn't been featured in TV commercials for more than 20 years.

WEIGHT LOSS UPDATE:

Super-Powerful "Diet Pills" Make Comeback

They're flying off the shelf... But they're NOT for everyone!

Most of us thought the era of the "Super-Powerful" diet pill ended a few years back when the FDA removed Ephedra and Fen-Phen from the U.S. market because of safety concerns.

Well, it turns out that "most of us" were wrong. It seems that a huge, multibillion-dollar, "underground" market for these amphetamine-like fat burners sprung up even before the ink was dry on the FDA's decree.

But recently, an entirely new crop of high-quality, super-powerful and super-effective diet pills are coming out of hiding and are hitting the shelves of your local GNC.

The current leader in this new category is a product called BiphedAdrene,® developed and sold by Generix Labs, LLC. The company tells us that BiphedAdrene is a two-part system composed of a unique "Complex Phenylethylamine Provisional" (for powerful appetite control, mood elevation, and energy) combined with an aggressive thermogenic compound (for fat burning and stamina). This two-pronged attack on fat is apparently what makes the compound so effective... and so popular.

While the pills do cause rapid weight loss (no doubt about that), these amphetamine-like compounds are fast becoming a favorite among bodybuilders, college students, and overstressed, exhausted homemakers for their energy and stamina-boosting properties (in other words, as powerful "go-fast" pills). Because cult-like trends that begin with bodybuilders and college students quickly become mainstream, many BiphedAdrene (or BiPhed for short) critics are concerned about the overuse of these powerful compounds.

While the pills do cause rapid weight loss (no doubt about that), their reputation as "Mother's Little Helpers" seems to be the driving force behind their extraordinary appeal.

A spokesperson for Generix Labs explains, "One of the things we often heard, as we made a study of the weight-loss market, is that people missed the mood elevation and boost of energy that were 'side-effects,' if you will of the Fen-Phen and Ephedra class of diet pills. The weight loss was always primary, but nearly as important was the increase in energy and mood. These new non-amphetamine compounds provide not only very substantial weight loss, but also a similar mood and energy boost."

While these "super pills" are finding their way into the general marketplace, they are definitely not for everyone. In fact, you shouldn't even think about taking them if losing five or six "vanity pounds" is your goal. These diet pills are intended exclusively for the significantly overweight. But that's not the only caveat. You should check with your doctor to ensure you are in overall good health before considering any of this new category of pills.

Let's face it... even though this new generation of diet pills, such as BiphedAdrene, aggressively proposes "easy" weight loss, increased energy, and improved mood, they are expensive ($135 for a 30-day supply) and need to be used very responsibly. See you in the supplement section!

NOW BACK IN STOCK!

We at Generix Labs sincerely apologize to anyone who has been unable to find BiphedAdrene at their local retailer. We simply didn't anticipate the overwhelming demand. However, we are happy to announce that BiphedAdrene is once again available at GNC... or direct from the manufacturer (and shipping is always free!)†

NEW CELEB APPRENTICE BANKS ON TYRA & THE TERMINATOR!

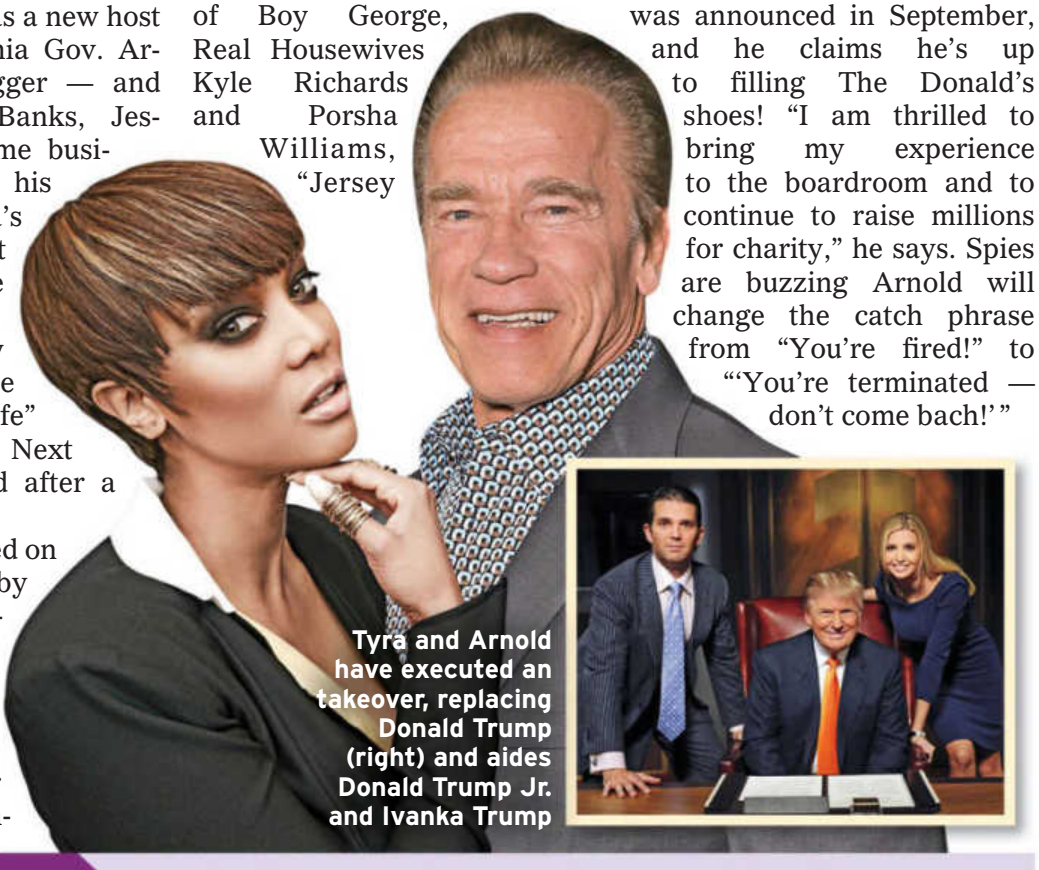

NBC executives at "Celebrity Apprentice" had to give Republican Donald Trump a bittersweet "You're fired!" after he entered the presidential race.

Now the show has a new host — former California Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger — and appointed Tyra Banks, Jessica Alba and some business bigwigs as his sidekicks! Tyra's new gig comes just months after she left her floundering — and now canceled — daytime talk show "FABLife" and "America's Next Top Model" ended after a 22-season run.

Tyra will be joined on the adviser slate by actress and makeup maven Jessica Alba, billionaire Warren Buffett, former Microsoft CEO Steve Ballmer and Arnold's nephew Patrick Knapp Schwarzenegger, who is an entertainment lawyer.

On the boardroom hot seat for the 15th season of the reality competition are the likes of Boy George, Real Housewives Kyle Richards and Porsha Williams, "Jersey Shore" babe Snooki Polizzi, rocker Vince Neil and boxer Laila Ali. In total, 16 contestants will compete for charity as Arnold assesses their worth.

The former Governator's gig was announced in September, and he claims he's up to filling The Donald's shoes! "I am thrilled to bring my experience to the boardroom and to continue to raise millions for charity," he says. Spies are buzzing Arnold will change the catch phrase from "You're fired!" to "'You're terminated — don't come bach!'"

Tyra and Arnold have executed an takeover, replacing Donald Trump (right) and aides Donald Trump Jr. and Ivanka Trump

TV FACT The first TV commercial was a 10-second spot for Bulova watches that aired during a Dodgers-Phillies baseball game on July 1, 1941.

DANCING COMPETITION IS KID STUFF!

Nigel Lythgoe, Paula Abdul & Jason Derulo are ready to rule

MOVE over, "Master Chef" and "Chopped"! The latest show to go kid-friendly is Fox's "So You Think You Can Dance," which will return for a 13th season ... with 13-year-olds!

Contestants will range from ages 8 to 13 and be paired with all-star professionals to compete for the title of America's Favorite Dancer.

Co-creator Nigel Lythgoe, Paula Abdul and singer Jason Derulo are all back at the judges' table, with Cat Deeley reclaiming her post as host.

"By evolving the 'So You Think You Can Dance' format this season, we can showcase the very best junior dancers out there and open up the world of dance to a whole new generation," says Nigel of the format shake-up.

But fans aren't yet convinced, and insiders fear that season 13 will be more "Dance Moms" than dance-off.

"I can see this being all kinds of wrong," shudders one viewer, while another insists the twist "sounds like a train wreck."

"SYTYCD" comes back to FOX on May 30 at 8 p.m.

GMA'S SARA BIG BLOOPER

WHOOPI Goldberg had two reasons to fume about "Good Morning America" anchor Sara Haines!

"The View" guest-host Sara got her all riled up during a debate on Black History Month by asking what she prefers to be called: "African-American or black."

"Just call me 'Whoopi!'" says "The View" host.

Then Whoopi revealed how, just days earlier, Sara "got all excited and she called me 'Oprah.'"

A sheepish Sara, who is expecting her first child in March, blamed the blunder on pregnancy hormones affecting her brain as she called out for Whoopi. "And for some reason 'Oprah' came out. I did get her attention though!"

Ya think?

Sara Haines and Whoopi Goldberg (flanked by George Stephanopoulos and Sam Champion) squabbled on "The View"

TV trivia

FERRIS BUELLER KID HACKS INTO SCHOOL COMPUTER & CHANGES GRADES!

Ferris (Matthew Broderick) slacked and scammed in the 1986 hit

An IT worker noticed Walstrom's unauthorized log-ins – and the cops put up their own firewall by clapping on the cuffs!

'Quiet' whiz kid even managed to do it with his smartphone

A BRAINIAC student who nearly pulled off a a scam straight out of a Hollywood teen flick has confessed to busting into his high school's database and boosting his grades!

The hack attack recalls the '80s comedy "Ferris Bueller's Day Off," starring Matthew Broderick as a work-avoiding teen who changes the number of his school absences without tipping off his principal.

But devious 16-year-old student Eric Walstrom outdid Ferris by ducking his high school's security and password protections to manipulate his records over a three-month span — and it was no laughing matter!

The teen pled guilty on Jan. 27 to computer tampering.

One of Walstrom's former classmates at New Dorp High School in New York was impressed by his hacking skills.

"Stuff like that happens a lot only in movies," says Brandon Telleria. "So, it's pretty cool for a kid to actually do it."

Walstrom learned several of his techniques at a high-tech summer camp held at several universities. Investigators say Walstrom, now 17, was so skilled that he was able to set up a program to change his grades with his home computer — and even by smartphone!

Investigators were also trying to determine whether he altered grades for classmates.

But that seems unlikely, as one student says Walstrom mostly kept to himself at school.

"He's a quiet person," says Michael Magnand. "He never really got involved with a lot of friends."

But one classmate says Walstrom might get an A for ingenuity, but deserves an F for cheating.

"I think it's good that he knows how to do it ... I don't think it's good that he did it," says Dennis Nudel.

"The grades I get, I get, you know?" agrees student Vanessa Quinones. "It is what it is."

If Walstrom completes a court-ordered mental-health program, the felony charge will be reduced to a misdemeanor on April 27.

GLOBE READERS: SEND AFFLUENZA TEEN TO JAIL!

YOU BE THE JUDGE POLL RESULTS

IN the February 1 issue of GLOBE we asked readers if "affluenza teen" Ethan Couch and his mom should be sent to jail after fleeing to Mexico to keep Ethan from facing a possible jail sentence.

We're proud to report the results were nearly UNANIMOUS, as readers ripped the privileged parent and her spoiled son.

Here are the results:

YES: 99% NO: 1%

Among the scathing comments:

"Yes, the affluenza brat should be in prison!" texts an Ohio reader.

"Justice should be served! Mother and son should do some serious prison time!" adds a Delaware voter.

And an angry Canadian called in, too: "I didn't know there was a different set of laws for rich/poor people. This is an outrage."

Huge Demand for New Cell-Slimming Diet Pill

Frustrated by his patient's weighty health problems, resident diet and health expert; Dr. Seymour Weaver III has single-handedly changed the way people will lose weight forever.

By Senior Staff Reporter, Steve Christo

Dr Seymour Weaver III: The genius behind the most impressive weight loss phenomenon of our time.

Local area physician, Dr. Seymour Weaver III has done the impossible. He created a pill that doesn't just help you lose weight. It helps morph even the chronically obese; into skinnier, healthier versions of themselves.

The pill works best on people who don't have the willpower to stick to a diet… Or those who have been dieting for years and never seem to be able to lose weight. That's because you're not forced onto a treadmill or to starve yourself.

Unlike other formulas, Dr. Weaver's pill works on a cellular level… slimming down each individual fat cell by feeding it the proper nutrition it needs to stay healthy. We are seeing thinner waists, leaner torsos and a huge reduction in dangerous health numbers that often plagues patients with weight problems. Both doctors and drug companies are astonished.

"This is a huge leap forward! Without any real effort at all my formulation not only stops you from adding pounds — it actually brings your body back to its own natural, God-given weight" says Weaver.

It all began in February 2011, when Dr. Weaver received some scary results back from the lab about one of his favorite patients. This gentleman, who will for privacy purposes go unnamed; had cholesterol and triglyceride levels that might send others directly to the grave. Explains Weaver, "Of course my first thought was to put my patient on a strict diet. But at this point, there was no time. If I didn't do something quickly; the man could predictably be dead in just a few months". Weaver was left with few options. Gastric bypass was out of the question. It was too dangerous for a man in his condition. Besides, his insurance company would never cover it.

Challenge Accepted!

Never one to step away from a challenge; Dr. Weaver used everything he knows about medicine; and how it interacts with the human body. Weaver is an exceptional doctor and formulator of some of the most impressive natural remedies ever created.

But developing this pill was no easy task. He needed America's top research laboratory to do it. And testing had to be done by trained technicians, in a controlled environment, using only the latest equipment available.

Weaver experimented with thousands of ingredients. Some worked a little, others not at all. Then almost accidently, he stumbled upon the mother-load… A formula that works synergistically — encouraging a reduction of your fat cells instead of body weight. It's a weight-loss phenomenon some of the highest paid researchers in the world have been chasing for years. Weaver's formulation in effect puts every single fat cell in your body "on a diet". So now, instead of slowly burning away excess fat, your fat cells actually slim down.

A Possible Nobel Prize Winner

It's a totally new approach to weight loss. Considered so revolutionary in fact, there's even talk of a Nobel Prize for science. That's because he was able to identify 14 rare compounds; with odd names like Caralluma, and Lactobacillus Acidophilus. But when fused together, the formula actually forces your body to lose weight at the cellular level. It's never been done before!

How It Works…

Unlike anything ever developed, the pill targets and conditions your fat cells from the point of food digestion – to the point of waste expulsion. The formula works by latching on to each individual fat cell; then force-feeding it with essential nutrients that turn slow-moving fat into usable energy. The result? Dramatic weight loss as each cell shrinks down to its normal size.

Dr. Weaver decided to put his formula to the test. Excitedly, he called his patient to come in for a follow-up visit. He handed the patient a plain white bottle of pills. There was no label on it and no directions other than Weaver's handwritten scrawl that said "take orally, twice a day".

"I can't begin to tell you how grateful I am!"

I dropped 40 pounds the first 40 days of my weight loss journey! I lost 30 more since then and I would like to lose another 80. The products developed by DR. WEAVER are PHENOMENAL! He helped me change my life...I eat a healthy diet, I exercise every day and I use his products. As a matter of fact, I have marked my calendar EVERY DAY THIS YEAR...I HAVE NOT MISSED ONE DAY OF EXERCISE IN 2014! – Mary S., Myrtle Beach, SC

Then something incredible happened….

For the first time the man could remember, he began to lose weight. A lot of weight. Pounds and pounds of pure fat GONE by his very next appointment! Weaver was ecstatic about the results and starts producing his formula in larger quantities.

Unprecedented Demand

Soon, word spread about Dr. Weaver's incredible new pill. Not only did his own patients clamor for it, other doctors' offices begged him for a supply. Local retail stores sold out before they could even get it on the shelves. And even now, he struggles to have enough manufactured to fill the growing demand.

"It conditions every cell in your body to shed fat… from the point of food digestion – to the point of waste expulsion. It's the first weight loss remedy that works on the cellular level. There's never been anything like it!"

– Dr. Seymour Weaver III

Here's What Early Testers Are Saying:

- "I lost 32 pounds without killing myself in the gym" – Mrs. Mary S , School Teacher
- "Pinch me! I went from a size 14 dress to a size 7. I still can't believe it!" – Autumn S, age 37, Systems Analyst
- "I took just two capsules a day… and I was amazed – 7 Pounds in the first week!" – Ron S, Age 63, Electrician.

Made only in USA, Officially Classified as "Prescription Free"

Dr. Weaver (known for his high ethical standards) produces each and every bottle in the United States. And only from pure and certified ingredients. That's how he can proudly guarantee each pill will work up to 97.7% of the time.

But his attention to detail has certainly slowed down production to the point of where it can only be offered on a limited basis.

Limited Availability to the Public

The pills work so well weight loss clinics are scrambling to purchase every single bottle; before the general public gets their hands on it. It's anticipated that all other forms of weight loss management (including gastric bypass) could become obsolete; once this supplement becomes widely available. But for now, it is still in its early marketing stages. And currently available only to people who learn about it here and contact us now.

CLINTON SEX ATTACK DESTROYED MY LIFE!

Kathleen Willey says her life became hell after she exposed Bill Clinton's 1993 sexual assault

She owes $128,674 in back mortgage payments

Broke Kathleen Willey LOSING HER HOME after harassment nightmare

AFTER blowing the whistle on Bill Clinton's disgusting Oval Office sex attacks, victim Kathleen Willey's life has hit rock bottom — she's flat broke and getting booted from her home!

"I need a miracle right now," the 69-year-old widow tells GLOBE. "I really need your prayers."

After going public against the ex-president in 1998, Kathleen's book, "Target: Caught in the Crosshairs of Bill and Hillary Clinton," charged Clinton and his wife Hillary with ruining her life. The ambitious power couple subjected her to "brutal campaign of fear and intimidation," she says.

In a shocking interview, Kathleen reveals, "my life has never been the same since I went public about Bill. I've not been able to hold down a job. I don't know if he's behind it or if people are scared off by my story about him. But it's been very difficult."

Kathleen stunned the nation when she revealed how Clinton sexually assaulted her during a 1993 meeting in his White House office.

She says the Molester-in-Chief fondled her breast and placed her hand on his pants over his manhood while they talked about her landing a White House job.

Tragically, her husband committed suicide the same day Clinton groped her.

Kathleen says Bill groped her during a job discussion in the Oval Office

After she told all, a source says Kathleen, her children and their friends "were threatened by heavy handed 'detectives' hired by Hillary. They took one of her cats and killed another. They left a skull on her porch. They told her she was in danger."

She's had repeated break-ins with files stolen from the two-bedroom home in Powhatan, Va., she shares with three dogs and two cats.

Now, she's a staggering $128,674 behind in mortgage payments and is being threatened with eviction on Feb. 19.

But her only means of support is her monthly $1,300 Social Security check that barely pays for food and power. Friends have started a Go Fund Me campaign on her behalf. To donate, visit: https://www.gofundme.com/wkmavvgs

She says, "I'm just going to pray that I get through this."

EAGER CLEAVERS

AS Theodore "Beaver" Cleaver JERRY MATHERS played the smaller, younger half of America's favorite trouble-happy TV duo opposite TONY DOW in the role of older brother Wally. From 1957 to 1963 the pair were sitcom icons, famous for landing in hot water but never getting burned by their misguided goofs. Unfortunately, the boys' acting careers fizzled after leaving "Beaver." Mathers, 67, recently starred in the sitcom pilot "Dad Dudes." Ironically, Dow, 70, played himself in the comedy flick "Dickie Roberts: Former Child Star." As Beaver would put it: Jeepers!
